Popcorn, is a Male Right Whale, his most distinct marking is the reason for his very cool but fun name: People think the bits of callosity on his head look like popcorn.

This sculpture is made from Canadian Hardwood; in fact, select hardwood flooring planks. We always recycle, reuse and reduce when possible. 'Popcorn' was designed to hang on the wall and comes with a D-ring on the back. Plus, our signature and coin from the Canadian mint, dating the sculpture in a time capsule.
