

Artist Statement

Gary A Crosby

I have been told that I am very prolific in my art. When you think about that statement, it would explain a lot about me. I like to think of myself as if I am on a quest. A quest to create a piece of art that needs no explanation. It is a work of art that grabs you and holds you in its tight grip, and you have an immediate profound understanding of what is meant by the art. Along the way, I explore other mediums such as epoxy art, Pyrography art, Painting to combine them to help me in this quest.
